WOMAN AND THE BABY.

What a puzzle the little child is in the domestic economy!

How the mother gives of her own life and strength to support the life of her blessed little youngster!

How the child kicks, and laughs, and crows!

How the child kicks, and laughs, and crows!

How the child kicks, and laughs, and erows!

And yet she lifts him, and tosses him, and plays with him, and takes care of him by day and by night.

Is it any wonder the mother breaks down? Her back aches. Her stomach fails her. Her liver is bad. Her blood is thin, and she says she feels poorly. Vesy yes, poorly—very poorly. Give mother a bottle of B words I have River. She needs the iron in her blood, which that will put there. She must have strength, or she will be at onfirmed old invalid will put there. She must have strength, or she will be at onfirmed old invalid.
